Derivative Highlights.

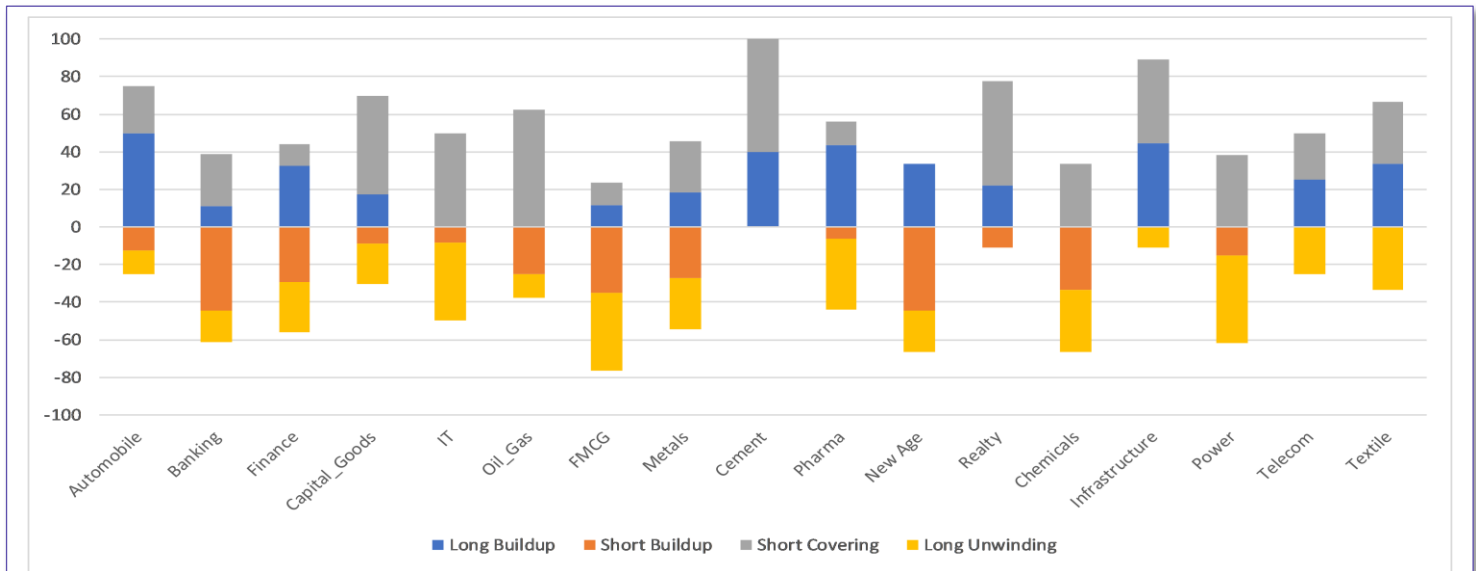

- On Thursday, post a gap-up opening, Nifty Futures failed to sustain at higher levels, as sellers remained active throughout the session. Additional selling pressure emerged during the day, leading to a decline and fresh short build-up, indicating that sellers continue to dominate at higher zones. The surge in volumes further confirmed fresh bearish positioning in the market. Meanwhile, the Put-Call Ratio declined slightly, though it remained close to 1, indicating that both buyers and sellers remain active on a positional basis, keeping the market range-bound until a decisive breakout occurs on either side. Additionally, the dip in implied volatility suggests that the market may continue to witness range-bound activity in the near term unless a breakout emerges. Among the constituents of the Nifty index, 13 stocks have witnessed a long build-up, and 10 stocks have witnessed a short covering rally. While 10 stocks have witnessed a short build-up, and 17 stocks have witnessed a long unwinding.
- Meanwhile, post a gap-up opening, Bank Nifty Futures failed to sustain at higher levels, with fresh short build up on the derivatives front, indicating new sellers entered at higher levels. The index futures eventually closed 0.39% lower, reflecting an inability to sustain upward momentum. Overall, the index continues to trade in a range-bound manner, with a decisive breakout on either side required for directional clarity.
- For the weekly series, the 23700 strike has significant call open interest, followed by the 23800 strike. On the put side, 23600 has a substantial open interest, followed by the 23500 strike. Going ahead, the 23820–23850 zone is likely to act as a key resistance for the index. A sustained move above 23850 could pave the way for an upward move towards the 24000 mark. On the downside, the 23550–23500 zone is expected to act as important support.
- In Bank Nifty, the 54000 strike has significant call open interest, followed by the 54500 strike. On the put side, 53500 has a substantial open interest, followed by a 53000. Going ahead, the 53900–54000 zone is likely to act as an immediate resistance. On the downside, the 53100–53000 zone is expected to provide crucial support. A decisive break below the 53000 level could further intensify selling pressure, dragging the index towards the next key support at around 52400.
